

The Diocese of Lismore Jubilee Art Prize

Terms and Conditions

June 2025

Objects

The Catholic Diocese of Lismore ("The Diocese") has established an Art Exhibition and associated Art Prize to encourage celebration of the Jubilee Year, based on the Jubilee Theme of "hope".

The purpose of the Jubilee Art Prize and Exhibition is to:

1. Celebrate the Jubilee Year – by encouraging artistic expressions that reflect the Jubilee theme of "hope."
2. Engaging the Community – Inviting participation from the Diocesan community to foster a shared experience of faith and creativity. This also helps to address one of the Renewal priorities around Youth Ministry and engagement.
3. Showcasing Artistic Talent – Providing opportunities for artists to have their work displayed digitally, physically at pilgrim churches, and through social media.
4. Enriching Diocesan Spaces – Acquiring artworks for use in churches, office spaces, aged care, education and healthcare settings to inspire and uplift those who encounter them.
5. Generating Positivity and Reflection – Encouraging artistic contributions that promote a hopeful and faith-filled message within the Diocese.

The Exhibition and Art Prize will be conducted in stages as follows:

- | | |
|---------|--|
| Stage 1 | Nomination by the artist/school via the Diocese website. |
| Stage 2 | Selection by the Organising Committee of artworks to be displayed at Pilgrim Church exhibitions. |

- Stage 3 Pilgrim Church exhibitions are held, and a local judging panel selects one artwork in each category for nomination to the Art Prize Exhibition (only Pilgrim Church people's choice prize is awarded at this Stage).
- Stage 4 Art Prize Exhibition is held in Lismore, and the Diocesan Panel selects the winners in each category with prize money awarded in all categories (except for the local Pilgrim Church people's choice previously awarded - see Stage 3 above).
- Stage 5 Potential acquisition of artworks by the Trustees of the Roman Catholic Church for the Diocese of Lismore.
- Stage 6 Collection of artworks by the artist of those artworks not acquired by the Diocese.

Art Exhibition and Prize Details

1. Eligibility

Individuals, groups, and entities associated with parishes in the Diocese of Lismore including students attending Diocesan schools are eligible for entry into the Jubilee Art Prize.

2. Nominations

- 2.1 Individuals and groups are invited to submit artworks via a Microsoft Form (<https://forms.office.com/r/u8NSPD8283>) and email to gallery@lismore.catholic.org.au for consideration of inclusion in exhibitions at Pilgrim Churches. Selected artworks will be displayed at exhibitions in Pilgrim churches with finalists on display at the Cathedral in late 2025.
- 2.2 Applications must include a short (up to 100 words) description of the artwork including how it evokes the Jubilee Theme "Hope" as part of the submission to the Lismore Diocese website.
- 2.3 The artwork must be an original artwork completed by the individual/group and which the individual or group has not assigned their rights to any other party, institution, or entity.
- 2.4 Schools may submit artworks on behalf of individuals and groups. Each school is limited to a maximum of eight (8) entries.

- 2.5 Individuals whose artwork has been selected for inclusion in a Pilgrim Church Exhibition are responsible for delivery of their artwork to the nominated local parish Pilgrim Church, unless prior arrangement has been made with the organising committee.
- 2.6 Parishes associated with each Pilgrim Church can be found below:

4. Acquisition

4.1 Artworks will not automatically become the property of the Trustees of the Roman Catholic Church for the Diocese of Lismore. Any acquisition by the Diocese will occur only through explicit mutual agreement between the Diocese and the artist, separate from the prize awarding process.

4.2 All winning artworks may be retained by the Diocese for public exhibition purposes for a period of up to twelve (12) months following the conclusion of the Art Prize Exhibition. Artists agree to provide their artwork for this exhibition period. The Diocese will ensure artworks are handled with appropriate care, but artists acknowledge that the Diocese is not responsible for accidental loss or damage during this exhibition period.

4.3 Artists whose works are not acquired by the Diocese and who do not wish to donate their artworks must arrange for collection of their artwork from the Diocese within thirty (30) days following the final Art Prize Exhibition.

Artists whose artworks have been selected for the extended exhibition period under clause 4.2 must arrange for collection within thirty (30) days following the conclusion of the exhibition period. If artwork is not collected within this timeframe and no alternative arrangement has been agreed with the Diocese, the Diocese reserves the right to dispose of or donate the artwork at its discretion.

4.4 Acquired or exhibited artworks may be displayed in any buildings owned, controlled or operated by the Diocese of Lismore, at the discretion of the Diocesan Business Manager.

4.5 By entering the Art Prize, all finalists and winners grant the Diocese a non-exclusive, royalty free perpetual licence to reproduce their artwork in various formats. This includes the right to photograph, publish, and share the work publicly including in connection with the Art Prize and related activities, and any other use at the Diocese's discretion.

These uses may include, but are not limited to, marketing, promotional materials, educational resources, publications, and displays including across all media platforms—digital, broadcast, and print—on an ongoing basis. Entrants are responsible for ensuring that this permission is also respected by any third party outside the Diocese.

- 4.6 The Diocese will, where practical, acknowledge the artist as the creator and aim to present the artwork in its entirety. However, specific details of the work may be used at the Diocese's discretion.
- 4.7 No consideration will be provided to entrants (including winners and finalists) for the Diocese's reproduction or promotional use of artworks. Use of the artwork is at the discretion of the Diocesan Business Manager not all artworks may be utilised.

Intellectual Property and Copyright

- 4.8 In accordance with the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth), copyright in all artworks submitted to the Art Prize remains with the entrant as the original creator. By entering the competition, entrants (including finalists and winners) grant the Diocese a perpetual non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use, reproduce, publish, and communicate their artwork. This includes promotional, educational, and archival use, in any media format, in perpetuity.
- 4.9 Entrants must ensure they hold the appropriate rights to the work and that the submission does not infringe on any third-party intellectual property. The Diocese will endeavour to credit artists where their work is used and will not alter the work without permission, except where reasonable or necessary for formatting or promotional purposes.
